Transition/Pontio 2020

Transition: The Beginning

- We have received information about each and every one of our children from the primary schools
- We know about their hobbies, likes/dislikes, friends and how they are in primary school
- Pupils will be placed into a teaching group that is appropriate for their academic ability, at this time
- They can move class throughout the year-based on the progress that is made. This is reviewed each Term

Teaching Group Structure

Band 1

- W (Class)
- A (Class)

Band 2

- L (Class)
- E (Class)
- S (Class)

Band 3

- H (Class)
- K (Class)

Wellbeing/Pastoral Team

- Miss Brown will be the teacher responsible for the children. She will support and guide them, academically and pastorally, to make sure they reach or exceed their potential
- Mrs C Burton is our ALNCo who is responsible for the day-to-day co-ordination of pupils' additional learning needs
- Year 7 Pastoral Officer, Mrs Ward, will be the key member of staff to provide care, support and guidance to all of our children

Wellbeing continued.....

- Mrs Flynn, our Wellbeing Manager, will provide additional specialist support, and guidance, to families and pupils
- Pupils will register and check in with a member of the Form Tutor Team. They will be the first point of contact for the child

Your First Day

- Arrive by 8.40am where there will be staff to meet you and tell you where to go
- You will be taken to a classroom where a member of the Form Tutor Team will meet you. A register will be taken
- You will receive a timetable, planner and information about the school day
- You will meet key staff
- Wear your Cefn Hengoed uniform (information in Welcome Pack)
- Bring a bag and equipment (information in Welcome Pack)
- Bring some money to buy food (We will then work to set up your cashless payment during the first week)

Our Promise

- Our children will be very well cared for
- We will meet with each and every child in the first week to make sure they have settled into Year 7
- Children will not get lost in the school building-we have staff to show them around
- Children will have the opportunity to be part of clubs and groups that will enhance their school experience
- Pupils will have all the support and guidance to ensure they make excellent academic progress
- We will work closely with families to ensure you are all supported

We cannot wait to see you in September!
